Restrictions eased in Kashmir Valley

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
Srinagar, August 17

RESTRICTIONS ON THE movement of people in the Kashmir Valley were eased on Saturday, with landline services restored in some areas of the city, even as stringent security arrangements continued to be in place, officials said.

They said the restrictions have been relaxed in 35 police station areas of Kashmir, while 17 telephone exchanges have been made functional out of the total 96 across the Valley. The restrictions were eased on Saturday morning to facilitate the movement of government employees towards their offices, the officials said. Security forces continued to remain deployed, while barricades remained on the roads, but people were allowed to move after checking their credentials, they said.

The officials said landline services were restored in some areas of the Valley like Raj Bagh and Jawahar Nagar, but remained suspended in most parts, including the commercial hub of Lal Chowk, Press Enclave, and other areas around it.

There was an increase in movement of private vehicles in the civil lines areas and other district headquarters of the Valley, officials said, adding that some inter-district cabs were also seen plying in Dalgata area. Some shops in the civil lines area opened on Saturday morning, the officials said. However, most of the business establishments, including fuel stations, remained shut.

Addressing a conference, government spokesperson Rohit Kansal said relaxations have been eased in 35 police station areas. "The process of providing relaxation and easing out of restrictions is already in progress. Relaxation has been provided in 35 police station areas across the Valley and so far, there are no reports of any untoward incident. The public transport is plying and we have encouraging reports of a lot of public movement," Kansal said. On the restoration of landline services, the government spokesperson said out of the 96 exchanges in the Kashmir Valley, 17 are functional and providing landline services to people.

2G services restored in Jammu

LOW-SPEED (2G) mobile internet services have been restored in five districts of Jammu region and restrictions in the Kashmir Valley, state police chief Dilbag Singh said on Saturday. However, he warned that any misuse of internet facilities will result in legal action. Now there are no restrictions in 10 districts of Jammu with ongoing relaxation at Poonch, Banihal, Kishtwar and Bhaderwah, towns for the day, he said. —PTI

ED attaches Usha Martin assets worth ₹190 crore

FE BUREAU
Kolkata, August 17

USHA MARTIN, ONE of the leading wire rope manufacturers in the world, on Saturday said the Enforcement Directorate (ED) has provisionally attached certain immovable properties of the company, valued at approximately ₹190 crore, pertaining to the wire rope business situated in Ranchi.

The ED's provisional attachment of the properties was in connection with the sale of iron ore extracted from the iron ore mines situated in Jharkhand which had been allotted for captive usage by the Kolkata-based company. "The Directorate of Enforcement, Patna has issued an order dated 9 August 2019, which was received by the company on 16 August 2019, for provisional attachment of certain immovable properties of the company valued at approximately ₹190 crore pertaining to the wire rope business situated at Ranchi. As per the above mentioned order, the ED has provisionally attached the aforesaid property for a period of 180 days and the company has been directed not to transfer or dispose the property without the consent of the ED," Usha Martin said in a stock exchange filing.

"The order is passed against the company in connection with sale of iron ore extracted from the iron ore mines situated at Ghatkundi, West Singhbhum, Jharkhand which were allotted for captive usage by the company. The High Court of Jharkhand at Ranchi, in its order dated 14 February 2012, had held that the Company has the right to sell the iron ore from the iron ore mines as per the terms of the mining lease. As such, the company disagrees with the ED's order and will take appropriate legal action to contest the same," the filing added.

The company said it was seeking advice from its legal counsels and was given to understand that the order did not affect its ongoing operations.
